

Kendrick School Music Department
Performer Series 2
Choral Masterclass and Concert
with Harmesh Gharu
Wednesday 23rd January 2019
at 7pm, Kendrick School Hall

If you are a soprano/alto singer and would like to take part in this exciting opportunity, contact ccooper@kendrick.reading.sch.uk

Programme:

4.00pm Choral Workshop and Vocal Masterclass (for students only)

7.00pm Concert

We are very excited to announce that Harmesh Gharu (MA, BMus (Hons), PGCE), our 2018 House Music adjudicator, is to give a masterclass to vocal students, and work with an SSAA choir, who will then perform in the evening concert. Harmesh, the Head of the Commercial Music Course at Tring Park School, teaches both the academic and vocational music curriculums, in addition to directing two of the school choirs. During his time at Tring Park School, he has taught the likes of Ella Henderson, Daisy Ridley (Star Wars: The Force Awakens) and Richard Linnell (Hollyoaks). He regularly performs with professional ensembles and his most recent performance was with the West End Gospel Choir at the iconic WhatsOnStage Awards. In January 2018, Harmesh appeared as a TV judge with The 100 on BBC Ones new primetime show All Together Now.

TICKETS AVAILABLE ON PARENTPAY - £5.00 FOR ADULTS; FREE TO KENDRICK STUDENTS AND STAFF

Please note this concert is not suitable for children under the age of 10 years