

The Coronation of King Charles III

Now we rejoice for our coming king,
Our national anthem we will sing,
The crown is waiting for its heir,
King Charles III, with regal air.

A new reign comes with a new day,
The new monarch's power on display,
With grace and with poise he'll ascend to the throne,
To lead our country, his pride shown.

He'll lead our nation into glory,
And fulfil his destiny,
We'll celebrate and cheer,
As a new king reigns for many a year.

May his reign be long and just,
May it be one with trust,
To our new king, we swear our loyalty,
To King Charles, your Majesty

Miraya Sharma

