

POETRY PENTATHLON, Kendrick School, July 2022

Yaashawi's Five Winning Poems

Fridge Magnet Poetry

The heart is riddle
And is an echo of a silent chuckle
And life is a delight

Lucky Dip. Topic – rain

The sky cries with pain
The horse's tail is swishing as is its mane
As time goes by, we know what it is
The plant's excitement makes the fizz
The name we have given the clouds' pain
Is what we call rain

Throw The Dice. Symbol – a heart

My heart is one with time
Soon, it is my turn to shine
Words will come from my tongue with a fling
As I speak for my love to sing

Word of the Week

It is now a new era
Not woebegone like the last
But lustrous and bright

Found Poetry

I have finally done it
As I walk through Kendrick halls
And I see John Kendrick's eyes gaze

Nivi's Five Winning Poems

Fridge Magnet Poetry

Lemons dwell in a glass garden
Who shimmers there beneath the weeds
As despair summons a bright gold fossil

Lucky Dip. Topic –flying

To be afloat
In the luscious clouds
Sailing in a boat
To make the clouds my abode

Throw the Dice. Symbol – a banana

Luscious delicacy growing by the bunchful
To commit atrophy
Would be unthinkable
It would be a catastrophe
And well, most negligible

Word of the Week

For eras we have been judgemental
But now egregious

Found Poetry

Music melting stresses
Pushing, bullying, blocking
Till
Bang!
