Vacancy Information Pack

Teacher of History with Religious Studies (RS)

Lead, Inspire, Make a Difference

Introduction

Dear Applicant

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to Kendrick School. Thank you for your interest in our History Teacher with RS role.

Kendrick School is an 11-18 selective girls' school with academy status. It has a local and national reputation as an outstanding school and has an impressive record of achievement as a centre of excellence for girls' education.

In its last five OFSTED inspections, Kendrick was judged an "outstanding" school. In our most recent inspection in November 2022, OFSTED stated "Pupils and sixth formers are justly proud of their school community. They delight in their learning and truly excel here. One parent spoke for many when reflecting, 'The school does a great job of creating well-rounded, kind, human beings who will hopefully go on to make the world a better place. The academic results are important of course, but far from the only focus.' Inspectors totally agree."

Kendrick is a forward-looking school that grasps the opportunities that present themselves. A love of learning is at the heart of Kendrick with a strong emphasis on high quality teaching. The curriculum is organised to meet the needs of all students and is engaging, rich and ambitious. All staff are hardworking and dedicated; students are bright, enthusiastic and curious, they love being at their school.

At Kendrick, students enjoy a rich and varied extracurricular education. The House System provides opportunities for healthy competition with numerous annual house events, which are key activities in the school year. Kendrick Student Leaders work energetically and collaboratively with staff to support this vital community element of the school. In addition, we have a School Council, which discusses and drives change for students.

Safeguarding and students' mental health and wellbeing are prioritised above all else. As stated by Ofsted in November 2022, 'The arrangements for Safeguarding are effective at Kendrick' and 'there is a culture of vigilance' where 'staff care deeply about pupils' wellbeing'.

As part of Kendrick's Widening Horizons strategic initiative, we actively pursue partnerships with schools and businesses in our local area and beyond. These associations benefit the students of Kendrick, as well as those in neighbouring schools. We share our good practice and offer opportunities to work with primary and secondary schools in the Reading area.

Kendrick has been expanding over the last three years, a process that started in September 2020 when an additional 32 students joined the school in Year 7. This year we welcomed the last of the expanded cohorts into Year 7, which completes the expansion, making Kendrick a four-form entry school for Years 7-11. In the admission policy, priority is given to pupil premium students and students living in the Reading area, which is called Priority Area 1. Our Widening Horizons initiative commits us to achieving greater participation and access for students from local primary schools. In July 2024, we were awarded the Sutton Trust Fair School Admissions Award at Gold level. This is a great accolade for the school which we are very proud of.

As the Headteacher of Kendrick, it is my vision to lead, inspire and make a difference to the lives of girls and young women. I believe passionately in girls' education and know that Kendrick School affords its students the very best education there is.

Ms Christine Kattirtzi
Headteacher

THE HISTORY DEPARTMENT

The History Department at Kendrick School consists of two experienced teachers in addition to the advertised maternity role. Staffing has been very stable for some years and the department works closely together, sharing resources and collaborating on curriculum development.

Key Stage 3 (Year 7- Year 9) lessons are taught to form groups of 32 students. The curriculum at Key Stage 3 is kept under review to support coherence and rigour, and changes have been made in recent years to diversify perspectives and decolonise aspects of the curriculum. The Key Stage 3 curriculum follows a broadly chronological framework. Much of the Year 7 curriculum focuses on medieval history before moving on to early modern topics and a thematic study of migration through time by the end of the year. In Year 8 students study topics from the early modern and industrial eras, along with the rise of the Kingdom of Benin. In Year 9 students study twentieth century topics, including causes of the World Wars, the campaign for women’s suffrage, the Holocaust and the beginnings of the Cold War. There is also a study of Britain’s relationship with India from 1600 to 1947.

There are typically three classes in each year at GCSE, where the AQA exam syllabus is followed. Units studied are Conflict and Tension between East and West 1945-1972, which follows from the study of the beginning of the Cold War and the end Year 9, Germany 1890-1945, Elizabethan England c1568-1603, and Health and the People c1000-present.

At A Level there are one or two classes per year and the OCR exam syllabus is followed. Units studied are Britain 1951-1997, France in the era of the Revolution and Napoleon, and Russia and its Rulers 1855-1964. Students in Year 13 work on a non-examined assessment study of the political and social position of women in Britain and the campaign for women’s suffrage c.1867-c.1928.

Students at Kendrick enthusiastically engage with History and indicating opportunities for extension and deepening thinking are important to the History Department's work. In recent years a student-led Hidden Histories event has celebrated research students have done beyond lessons into their own choice of topics that typically get less coverage in schools and the media.

THE RELIGIOUS STUDIES DEPARTMENT

The Religious Studies department's aim is to encourage students in all year groups to acquire the knowledge and skill to identify, analyse and evaluate religious beliefs and practices across a range of traditions. Furthermore, philosophical content runs through key stages 3, 4 and 5 and students are encouraged to engage with ideas logically and compassionately. Simultaneously they are expected to critically assess and compare their own and others' views while respectfully appreciating diversity. This is achieved via stimulating discussions, accurate and challenging content and skills-focused assessments.

Year 7 religious studies explores selected key principles and practices from each of the main six religious traditions practiced in Britain. Each half term engages with a different tradition: Hinduism; Buddhism; Sikhism; Judaism; Christianity or Islam. They develop the skill of paragraph writing with some development of comparative analysis.

Year 8 students build on their knowledge from Y7 to explore themes in religion such a mythology, sacred space and symbolism. They develop their comparative analysis and begin to evaluate religious ideas.

Year 9 students explore approaches to the student of religion, including psychological and sociological research projects, and philosophical and ethical theories in relation to religion. They develop their skills by analysing and evaluating clear and distinct ideas by applying the course content.

We use AQA for GCSE because of its breadth of content and stimulating philosophy and ethics course. We always have at least one class doing GCSE. Religion and ethics is also taught via selected PSHCE lessons to the rest of Years 10-11.

Disclosure of a Criminal Record (to be completed if you are shortlisted for interview)

IMPORTANT

A check as to the existence and content of any relevant criminal record will be requested from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) after a person has been selected for appointment. Refusal to agree to a check being made could disqualify you from being considered for the appointment.

Under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, you have the right not to disclose details of "spent" convictions.

However, for certain jobs, employers are allowed to ask about these offences. The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exception Amendment) Order 1986 sets out details of all jobs to which this applies and the job you have applied for is included in the list.

The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are “protected” and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found in the accompanying Guidance Notes.

Please give details of any relevant criminal convictions that you may have. The disclosure of a criminal record may not necessarily prevent you from being appointed. The nature of the offence, how long ago it took place, your age at the time and any other relevant factors may be considered when a decision is made. Please note that some convictions are never considered “spent” under the terms of the Act.

Obtaining police checks for period lived outside the UK

If you have lived outside the United Kingdom (UK) for a period of more than 12 months or more in the past 10 years, while aged 18 or over you will be required to provide a satisfactory police check from that country(s) to cover that period.

If you are ineligible for a police check in the country you lived in outside the United Kingdom (for example because you were under the age required for police checks in that country, or because you are not a national of that country), or if you are unable to obtain a police check from an overseas country for other reasons, we may accept references from previous places of study or employment in that country. If this applies to you please contact us for further guidance.

Further information regarding obtaining a police check from other countries is available via the Gov.uk website for guidance on criminal record checks for overseas applicants.

Please bear in mind that some overseas countries will charge for a police check. Information for the different countries and fees involved can be found at the above link.

Filtering of Cautions and Convictions

This section provides guidance on the convictions which do not need to be declared on your application form. Please read carefully before answering this question. Further information is available from: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/disclosure-and-barring-service

The filtering rules (which remove certain old and minor convictions and cautions, reprimands and warnings from a Data and Barring Service (DBS) Certificate) were developed by the Home Office and the Ministry of Justice and introduced with new legislation:

The legislation is:

- Police Act 1997 (Criminal Record Certificates: Relevant Matters) (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013;
- Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2013.

The Filtering Rules

The rules regarding the automatic disclosure of cautions and convictions on a DBS certificate are set out in legislation.

Standard and Enhanced DBS certificates must always include the following records no matter when they were received:

- All convictions for specified offences

- Adult cautions for specified offences
- All convictions that resulted in a custodial sentence

Other records must be included depending on when the caution or conviction was received:

- Any adult caution for a non-specified offence received within the last 6 years
- Any adult conviction for a non-specified offence received within the last 11 years
- Any youth conviction for a non-specified offence received within the last 5 and a half years

An 'adult' is any individual aged 18 or above at the time of the caution or conviction. A 'youth' is any individual aged under 18 at the time of the caution or conviction.

A 'specified offence' is one which is on the list of specified offences agreed by Parliament which will always be disclosed on a Standard or Enhanced DBS certificate where it resulted in a conviction or an adult caution. Youth cautions for specified offences will not be automatically disclosed.

Any cautions (including reprimands and warnings) and convictions not covered by the rules above are 'protected' and will not appear on a DBS certificate automatically.

Cautions, reprimands and warnings received when an individual was under 18 will not appear on a Standard or Enhanced certificate automatically.

Please note that Enhanced certificates may include information relating to a protected caution or conviction if the police consider that it is relevant to the workforce that the individual intends to work in. Decisions to include information in this way are subject to statutory guidance.
