

CORONAVIRUS TODAY

STAY AT HOME
PROTECT THE NHS
SAVE LIVES

99 YEAR OLD VETERAN RAISES MILLIONS OF POUNDS FOR THE NHS

As of April 20, Captain Tom Moore has raised £26.8 million and is ~~ext~~ increasing massively day by day. The money has raised has been donated to the NHS charities together. Set to raise as much money as he can for the NHS, the 99-year-old first became a household name when saying that he will do 100 laps of his garden. The money is also being used to create wellbeing spaces in hospitals, where staff can rest during or after their shifts.

-----

PRINCE LOUIS' RAINBOW TRIBUTE MARKING HIS SECOND BIRTHDAY (23rd April)

Prince Louis has been photographed making a colourful rainbow poster to mark his second birthday.

.....

GRIMSBY TEACHER ZANE POWLES DELIVERING DOZENS OF LUNCHES A DAY

Grimbby teacher Zane Powles is delivering dozens of packed lunches every weekday to pupils stuck at home due to coronavirus. Mr Powles, who is assistant head at Western Primary school, walks about 5 miles dropping off lunches to children.

* * * * *

THE ARTISTS PAINTING FRONT-LINE WORKERS FOR FREE

Artist Tom Croft has introduced 500 artists to possible subjects after an online post offering to paint the portrait of a front-line worker.

VOLUNTEERS SEW SCRUBS FOR NHS STAFF

Sewing enthusiasts in the UK have been using their skills to make scrubs for health workers fighting the coronavirus. The initiative started after a nurse in London posted a request for scrubs.

|||||

ARRUTPA RADHAKRISHNAN TW