CAPTAIN TOM MOORE

Captain Tom Moore, aim was to walk a hundred lengths of his back garden before he was 100 years old at the end of the month. On Thursday 16th April, Captain Tom Moore completed his final 10 laps out of his 100 and this was captured on platforms including the BBC and ITV, and can be seen across various worldwide news outlets. However, Tom is going to continue to walk, raise money for our NHS heroes, and spread some cheer around the world whilst doing so. So far he has raised nearly 30 million pounds.

DEAN'S FARM CONCERT

Dean's Farm, in lower Caversham, held a social distancing concert on Saturday 11th April. One of the residents played their guitar and sang for many hours, for the enjoyment of the neighbours and to raise money for the NHS. Many people got involved, making sure to stick to the government guidelines with social distancing and lots of money has been raised.

HIKE TO THE MOON

Scouts across the UK are taking part in a fundraiser in which the proceeds will be split between Comic Relief and BBC Children in Need, and will go on to support local charities and projects in the UK. The aim is to get all scouts to walk a mile in their garden or even their house and get sponsored by family and friends. The aim to walk the distance to the moon and raise lots of money in the process,
