Bookish Banter Week 9

Welcome to the latest edition of the library newsletter. As we finish the last week of Term 5 we hope that you all enjoy the upcoming week away from school work and are able to relax despite the restrictions on our lifestyles at the present time. Remember to be kind to yourselves and those around you. Above all, read lots of books & don't forget to tell us about them!

Book of the Week

Becoming Dinah by Kit De Waal

Shortlisted for the 2020 Children's Book Award.

Dinah's whole world is upside down, dead things and angry men and cuts all over her head that are beginning to sting....

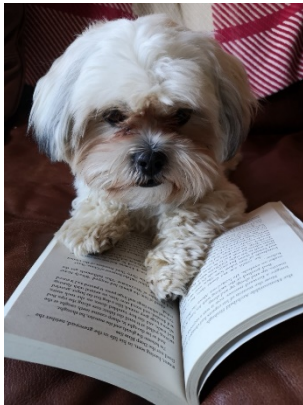

Seventeen-year-old Dinah needs to leave her home, the weird commune where she grew up. She needs a whole new identity, starting with how she looks, starting with shaving off her hair, her 'crowning glory'. She has to do it quickly, because she has to go now.

Available on Kindle for £3.99

What are you reading?

Let us know what your current book is...

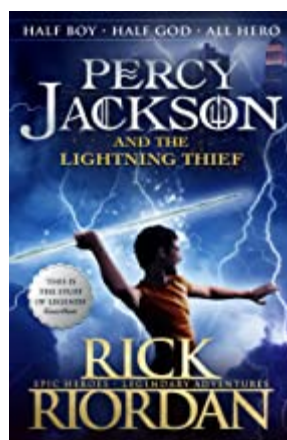

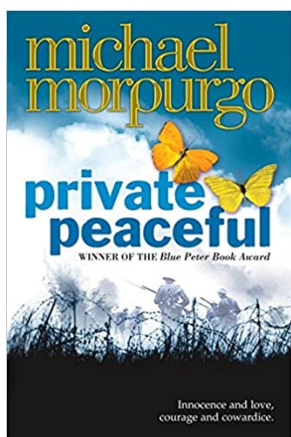

Ms. Nolte looks extremely comfortable and relaxed reading her copy of The Woman Upstairs by Claire Messud. The story is about Nora Eldridge who has always been a good girl: a good daughter, colleague, friend, and employee. One day a perfect boy enters her classroom and Nora is admitted into the charmed circle of his family. Liberation from her old life is not quite what it seems, and she is about to suffer a betrayal more monstrous than anything she could have imagined. Ms. Nolte says, 'I really enjoy reading books by women writers and this was no exception. Claire Messud writes with such intelligence and emotion – fierce rage, heart breaking sadness but also real humour at times. It isn't a "pretty read" but that's precisely why it's so hard to put down.'

Thank you Ms. Nolte and we really hope you enjoyed your birthday on Wednesday😊.

Fun-Loving, Book-Reading Pets

We now have a huge list of literature-loving pets connected to the Kendrick Community.....

Meet this week's feline friend:

Meet the hilarious Hunter reading Hello World – wonder if he will learn how to be human in the age of the machine?!

Just for our wellbeing

The SWAT and KSLT teams have done a wonderful job of drawing our attention to Mental Health Awareness Week and giving us some fantastic ideas on how to focus on kindness to ourselves and to others.

From a librarian's perspective, what better way is there to be kind to yourself than by allocating some very important me-time, finding your favourite comfy reading spot and becoming lost in an amazing story or your most cherished book? Pure bliss! Be good to yourself and enjoy. 😊

Just for fun!

Please welcome our cute crocheted Kendrick Student doll!

She was lovingly handmade by a friend of Mrs. Cavaciuti during lockdown. By the time we return to school we would like to announce a first name for Miss Kendrick before she takes up permanent residence in the Kendrick Library. That's where you come in. Please send in your name suggestions and we will announce the winner in the next few weeks.

There will be a small prize for the winning suggestion.

Good luck!
