

An Austen Celebration

Dear Students of Kendrick School,

In honour of the 245th Birthday of Miss Jane Austen, you are invited to participate in various festivities and frivolities throughout today, Wednesday 16th December, and beyond. These include:

- A search for the heroines' 'calling cards'. These were cards used in Austen's time if you had arrived to visit someone but they were out - essentially, a very early voicemail or missed call! Austen's leading ladies have been visiting locations around the school and leaving 'cards' with their names (all visible from outdoors!) - Find where they are in school, and research which novel each one comes from. Submit your answers to Mrs Munns (rmunns@kendrick.reading.sch.uk) before the start of next term for a chance to win a prize!*
- Make some regency style biscuits over the holidays with this recipe:
<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p018rdvx>*
- Creative competition: Write a maximum 500 word story which begins 'It is a truth universally acknowledged...' (the same way Pride and Prejudice starts!) Submit to Mrs Munns via email before the start of next term.*
- Announce your Regency name (see next page)*

Have a very Austentacious (!) and happy day and holiday, Mrs Munns
